

Ministry of Home Affairs, GOI
(CENTRAL RESERVE POLICE FORCE)

New Delhi
Dated 22nd June, 2018

SUBJECT : 30 NEW OFFICERS INDUCTED INTO CRPF : PASSING OUT PARADE HELD AT GURUGRAM.

CRPF, the Central Reserve Police Force successfully handles the difficult task of internal security in critical theaters across the country. Addressing the 49th Passing Out Parade function of DAGO's (Directly Appointed Gazetted Officers) in the CRPF Academy, Gurugram today, Shri Rajeev Rai Bhatnagar, DG, CRPF said that CRPF enjoys a rich tradition of valour & sacrifice. Throwing light on this aspect of CRPF, the DG said that even last year the brave personnel of CRPF have been awarded two Kirti Chakra, 04 Shaurya Chakra and as many as 105 Gallantry Medals by the Government of India.

The indomitable courage of Shri Sanjay Kumar, 2 -I/ C of the 180 Bn who sustained bullet injury in a fierce encounter in Tral (J&K), a couple of days ago and in which 03 militants were gunned down exemplifies this. Shri Bhatnagar exhorted the officer trainees to lead by example and be a motivating factor for the men. Shri Bhatnagar called upon the newly recruited officers to focus on new technology, tactics and strategy to emerge successful in the face of ever changing challenges.

As many as 30 DAGO's passed out from the academy after a rigorous training of 52 weeks. On the occasion, DG Shri Bhatnagar presented awards of excellence to the outstanding trainees. Shri Karan Sharma received the prestigious Home Minister's Cup, Sword of Honour, Director's Baton for Parade Commander and other two trophies for his brilliant performance in outdoor subjects and drill.

Retd. DG's of CRPF, Senior officers, families members of the DAGO's among others were present in large numbers on this occasion.

Sd/- 22/06/2018
PRO DTE CRPF.

