

I take this opportunity to congratulate all ranks of this Sector on the successful and peaceful culmination of the Assam Assembly elections. This incident-free, violence-free poll stands as resounding testimony to the hard work, grit and unwavering dedication of our CRPF troops and sector teams on the ground.

Conducting a democratic exercise of this magnitude in such complex operational terrains demands more than discipline, it requires seamless coordination, unyielding vigilance and resolute professionalism. Your steadfast presence created a secure environment for every voter, upholding the highest traditions of the CRPF amid intense pressures. I am profoundly grateful for the personal sacrifices and field hardships you endured to deliver this triumph. I take immense pride in your achievements. Well done, carry forward these exemplary standards of service.
