

31st Anniversary of 21st Batch of DAGOs

21st batch of DAGOs of CRPF have completed 31 years of their glorious service to the nation. On this day, i.e. on 3 July, in 1989, the young officers had their first physical introduction with the largest paramilitary Force of the world, the Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF) on the ground of the Centre of Excellence, The Internal Security Academy, CRPF, Mount Abu, and became elite members of the Force as A Class Gazetted Officers. During their long career of 31 years, the young officers of 1989 have served in the various theatres of operations. Be it Militancy in Punjab, Terrorism in J&K, Insurgency in North East or Left Wing Extremism, the officers of 21st batch of DAGOs have given their blood and sweat to keep the motherland safe.

Besides the operational fields, they have excelled in the field of other duties like Law and Order duties, Election duties, Amarnath Yatra Duty, Security of Vital installations, VIP Security, etc. where CRPF is the main role player. Along with deputations to various other organizations like NSG, SPG, UN Missions, they have proved themselves as excellent trainers during their stints in various training institutions of CRPF. With the same zeal and enthusiasm they are still giving their valuable services to the nations in various fields of duties.

The Director and all officers and men of Internal Security Academy, Mount Abu congratulate all the officers of 21st batch of DAGOs on completing 31 years of glorious service and wish them all the best for many more successful years ahead.

