Brief	Based on the inputs about the presence of some members belonging to Maoist Darbha division, which has been instrumental in carrying out several deadly attacks in Bastar along the borders of Bastar and Sukma districts, an operation was launched today by a joint team of 80 and 227 Battalion CRPF and District Reserve Guard (DRG) units from Bastar, Dantewada, and Sukma. During the operation an exchange of fire took place between the security forces and Maoists in the forest of Chandameta-Pyarbhat villages. After the exchange of fire stopped, the body of a Maoist (Female) clad in Maoist uniform along with one AK-47 rifle, two pistols and a huge amount of camping materials were recovered from the spot. A Rs 5 lakh awardee, the neutralised Maoist was identified as Mangli Hemla Madvi (Party member of Katekalyan Area Committee) W/O Jagdish and R/O Puwarti, PS Jagargunda, Distt. Sukma.
