

Rewardee Maoist Couple surrendered in Bijapur

District	Bijapur, Chhattisgarh
PS	Bijapur
Place	SP office Bijapur
Brief	While the security Forces continue to fight the armed Maoist guerrillas, they also exhort the Maoists to give up arms and renounce the path of violence. The Maoist who surrender before the security forces are welcomed into the mainstream with open arms. These initiatives have made many armed Maoists realise the hollowness of their ideology and also identify the harassment and discrimination they face in their cadres. Owing to such persistent efforts, Raju Karam (ACM), Central Committee protection group Commander of central regional bureau of CPI(Maoist) along with his wife Sunita Karam, a protection group member of central regional bureau, left the path of violence and surrendered today at SP office Bijapur in the presence of CRPF DIG Operations Bijapur, Commandant 85 battalion CRPF, SP Bijapur, and state police officials. Both the surrendered Maoists are 08 lakh rewardee and were involved in various violent crimes including the encounter with Telangana Greyhounds on 02/03/2018 where 09 Maoists were neutralised and 01 Police personnel made supreme sacrifice.
