FROM THE DESK OF CHIEF EDITOR

It gives me immense pleasure in bringing out the first issue of the training newsletter on behalf of Training Directorate. This newsletter will be highlighting news related to all the 20 training institutes. The main focus of this initiative is to share and to highlight the best practices and achievements in the field of training and sports with all field units. This will act like a thread which will connect all the pearl like institutes of CRPF. It will be a via medium for all our institutes to showcase the good work done by them. In the end, I will also like to congratulate the team of officers and men who are behind this endeavour.

AUSTRALIAN DELEGATION VISITS INSTITUTE OF IED MANAGEMENT, CRPF, PUNE

An Australian delegation visited the Institute of IED Management, CRPF, Pune on 15th Feb, 2016. The delegation interacted with the officers and instructors of the Institute and visited IED Model Room, IED Archives, IED Lab, R&D Section, demolition wing, class rooms and equipment gallery.

A demonstration of IEDs used by Naxals was shown to the delegation. Various IED incident sites have been created on the basis of past IED incidents of LWE theatre. The demonstration helped the delegation to understand the IEDs being used by the Maoists in LWE theatre. The delegation could get an idea about tactics, techniques and procedures of maoists in using IEDs.

Sh. Jamal Khan, Commandant, briefing Australian delegation

After the demonstration, various facets of IED and countermeasures were discussed in detail. Following members of Australian delegation took part in the counter IED discussion.

- Commander Scott Craig, Chief of Staff ADF Counter-IED Task Force.
- Lt Col Todd Hears, Counter-IED Task Force.
- Captain Sheldon Williams, Defense Adviser, AHC
- Ms. Jacinta Hudson, First Secretary Defence, AHC

Both sides agreed to enhance the cooperation in the fight against IEDs. It was emphasized that international cooperation is required to eliminate this global threat.

INSTITUTE IN FOCUS – CENTRAL TRAINING COLLEGE - NEEMUCH

Sh. Satpal Rawat, DIGP
Principal of the Institute

Central Training College, CRPF, Neemuch came into existence on 1st December 1960 for basic and in-service training of various ranks of the force and was the first training institution of the force. Lt. Col. Sawal Singh was the first principal of the institute. In the initial stages only Recruits Wing was created but in 1961 Cadre Wing was also added. With the passage of time, directly recruited Subordinate Officers / Under Officers were also sent for basic training to this Institution. This College was started in Sardar Barrack earlier named as Victoria Barrack of the Neemuch Cantonment, which was handed over by British Army to CRPF in 1939 when CRPF was raised.

Sardar Barrack - Neemuch

The basic training of Directly Appointed Gazetted Officers of CRPF was conducted at CTC Neemuch from 1963 to 1975. After raising of ISA, Mount Abu in 1975 the basic training of DAGOs was shifted to ISA, Mount Abu. The Technical Wing of CTC Neemuch was established in January 1976 for training of Ct/ Drivers and later on various courses were added to the curriculum.

In 2012, the institute shifted to its new administrative block building which is a state of the art building with the office block as well as modern classrooms, computer lab, library, multi gym etc. For smooth functioning of training and administration, the Central Training College Neemuch has been divided into four wings which are Physical Wing, Weapon and Tactics Wing, Technical Wing and Administration Wing.

Administrative Block - Neemuch

CTC Neemuch has facilities of canteen, cooperative shop, recreation room, central school, auditorium, open theatre, STD booth, bank cum ATM, internet cafe and a well stocked library. The College has an excellently managed training infrastructure like various types of firing ranges, model rooms, simulators, outdoor training facilities, field fortification area, gymnasium, UAC ground, drill sheds and modern classrooms.

The college has trained more than 95,000 force personnel in various basic training, specialized in-service and promotional courses. Besides 850 personnel of ONGC, IB, Parliament Security, Narcotics Control Bureau, J&K police and CISF have also been trained in weapon and tactics courses. 140 personnel including 132 of Srilanka police and 08 of Nepal police have also been trained by this College. This institute regularly sends faculty to run specialised courses like special course on support weapons to LWE based units, 81 mm mortar courses and training at newly raised units.

Sh. Satpal Rawat, DIGP being a passionate and dedicated trainer with excellent team of officers has planned a total of 20 courses in 2016 with an estimated capacity of around 4000 trainees. The college is on its way to achieve its Motto "Towards Excellence".
