

Ministry of Home Affairs, GOI
(CENTRAL RESERVE POLICE FORCE)

New Delhi
Dated 24th August, 2018

CRPF Family Welfare Association dispatches relief to Kerala flood victims

“From Heaven on Earth to God’s Own Country”

In a humane gesture by the J&K Zone of the welfare association of the largest paramilitary force, Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF), viz., CRPF Family Welfare Association (CWA), a consignment of relief material for Kerala flood victims was flagged off this afternoon by Dr. Manu Bhatnagar, President, CRPF Family Welfare Association, from the Group Centre, CRPF, Bantalab, Jammu.

The consignment included packets of ready to eat food items, biscuits, noodles, etc., with other essential items. Another variety of food packets containing rice, pulses, spices, salt, cooking oil, milk powder, etc. 9000 bottles of mineral water (1 Ltr. Each) with medicines, T. Shirts, slippers, soap, tooth paste, tooth brush, sanitary pads, mosquito coils were also sent. Polythene sheets also formed part of the total consignment weighting around 20 Tons.

CRPF Units of Jammu, Srinagar, Kashmir and North West (Chandigarh) Sectors came forward and contributed for this noble cause. The banner for the consignment said – “From HEAVEN ON EARTH to GOD’S OWN COUNTRY”.

While flagging off the consignment, Dr. Manu Bhatnagar conveyed that the CRPF families stand by the people of Kerala devastated by this deluge. She further stated that the CRPF is deployed across the country and widely acknowledged as a people friendly force. She affirmed that its families also shoulder the responsibility of social service and the CWA is committed to the welfare of the society, while working for the families of the CRPF personnel. Dr. Bhatnagar said that she has directed the other RCWA Units across the country to send relief consignments for the flood-battered people of Kerala. She reiterated that CWA is dedicated to its motto ‘ Sarthak Sahyog Sarwada’. She also appealed to the people to come forward and help the people of Kerala in whatever way they can. During the event, Smt Smita Sindhu, Zonal Head, CWA, J&K Zone, Smt Anita, Zonal Vice Head, and Smt Shivani Chauhan, Sector Head, CWA, Jammu, other officers, personnel and their families were also present. The consignment will be dispatched to Kerala by both air and rail from Jammu.

Sd/- 24/08/2018

PR Dte

