"To mark the 150" Birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, let us all take a pledge to live by the ideals of the Father of the Nation who is revered the world over as one of history's most transformative and inspirational figures. Known for his courage and compassion, Gandhi's steadfast approach to truth and freedom allowed him to channel the dreams and aspirations of the masses into a movement that broke the chain of colonial rule.

Let us work towards building a nation of his dreams. A clean India, a strong India, a nation committed to exploring its full potential through its workforce.

To quote the Mahatma, 'Be the change you want to see in the world'.

As a mark of respect to the Great Soul, beginning today, we have inserted footer in all your outbound mails that would continue to inspire and motivate you and the recipients of your eMail.

Let us work together to realize Gandhiji's dreams and take this nation to its rightful glory."
