POLICE TOURNAMENT -2026
(ZONE-B)
BENGALURU
28-01-2026 TO 01-02-2026

ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The tournament was conducted by Karnataka & Kerala Sector in association with Karnataka State Cricket Association under the aegis of Southern Zone, CRPF

Shri Ravideep Singh Sahi
Additional Director General, Southern Zone, CRPF

It is a matter of great pride to witness the successful conduct of the 2nd All India Police T-20 Cricket Tournament at Bengaluru. The Central Reserve Police Force upholds values of integrity, discipline and service, which extend beyond duty into sports and cultural activities. Policing and cricket both demand teamwork, endurance and commitment. This tournament highlights how personnel balance professional responsibilities with a passion for sports. Such activities promote fitness, unity and sportsmanship qualities essential to policing. I commend the organisers, players and supporters for making this event a success. Hope such initiatives continue to inspire excellence in both service and sports.

Dr Vipul Kumar, IPS
Inspector General, K K Sector, CRPF
Patron

The Central Reserve Police Force stands as a symbol of discipline, dedication and selfless service, with personnel upholding the highest standards of integrity and professionalism in every duty. The 2nd All India Police T-20 Cricket Tournament at Bengaluru reflects how these values extend into sports. Like policing, cricket demands teamwork, strategy and resilience. This event highlights the balance between duty and passion. It has strengthened camaraderie among CAPF and State police forces while promoting fitness and sportsmanship. I congratulate all participants, organisers and supporters for making the tournament a success. Hope such initiatives continue to inspire unity and excellence in service. I also take this opportunity to extend my sincere thanks to the officials of the Karnataka State Cricket Association for their professional support and extending every possible assistance in making this event a success. I am confident that this memorabilia will provide a glimpse into the efforts that made this tournament an enthralling event.

Shri Padma Kumar A
Deputy Inspector General, GC Bengaluru
Secretary, Organising Committee

Hosting the 2nd All India Police T-20 Cricket Tournament at Bengaluru has been an honour, showcasing our values of discipline, dedication and teamwork through sports. Policing demands responsibility and sacrifice, while cricket reflects similar qualities like perseverance, ethics and unity. The tournament has highlighted the enthusiasm of our personnel, strengthened camaraderie among police forces and emphasized the importance of fitness and morale. I sincerely appreciate the organisers, participants and supporters for making this event a success and hope the spirit of discipline, sportsmanship and service continues to guide us.
