

C.R.P.F is the largest paramilitary force in the world that deals with Internal Security of India with utmost dedication and loyalty. C.R.P.F. personnel not only display their courage, professional commitment towards duty but also show their talent in the field of sports. C.R.P.F regularly organizes various sports events at different level in this force. In this sequence, CRPF Inter-Sector golf tournament-2024 is being organized at Panchkula golf club, Panchkula Haryana. Total 33 seasoned and esteemed golf players from CRPF are going to participate in this club and ball sports tournament. This tournament is organised in CRPF every year in a Stroke play format. This tournament was inaugurated by the Chief Guest Shri Dinesh Uniyal, IGP, NWS, CRPF today and will conclude on 25/10/2024. During this tournament, competitions will be organized in team category and individual category. Provision has been made for a total of 07 prizes in individual categories. During the inaugural address the Chief Guest Shri Dinesh Uniyal, IGP, NWS, CRPF stated that sports help to maintain our physical as well mental health. He welcomed all the players & acquaint them with the golf tournament. He also said that, as the participants comes from the different corners of the country, so, this help to exchange each other's heritage, culture and traditions. On this occasion, Senior officers of C. R. P. F., various dignitaries from local administration and participants of the C. R. P. F. were present.