

On 23/10/2024, Shri Dinesh Uniyal, IGP, North West Sector, CRPF inaugurated the CRPF Inter-Sector Golf Tournament-2024 at Panchkula Golf Club, Panchkula (Haryana). Tournament is on full swing and competition between players also at its peak and all the participants are showcasing their skills to the best of their abilities. The inter-sector Golf tournament reflects CRPF's dedication to promoting physical well being and discipline among its personnel. The pleasant weather of the month of October is making the competition more interesting. CRPF male and female officers from various parts of the country like Jammu and Kashmir, Assam, Tripura, West Bengal, Kerala, Karnataka, Bihar, Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh and Delhi are participating in this tournament. All these officers are representing different institutions. Players from medical and technical fields of the force are also showcasing their sporting talent in this tournament. There is a tough competition going on among all the players in the Inter-Sector Golf tournament. As a part of tournament, a special souvenir was released, commemorating the event. The souvenir captures the insightful articles contributing by officers and inspiring messages from senior officials, serving as a memento for the participants and attendees.
