

Huge success for CRPF and Chhattisgarh Police: 2 Wanted Maoists surrender in Sukma

The concerted efforts of CRPF and Chhattisgarh Police for persuading the Maoists to leave the path of violent Maoist ideology and to facilitate their rehabilitation bore fruit and resulted in huge success in Sukma, Chhattisgarh, when a wanted Maoist; who had a reward of Rs 8 lakh on his head, surrendered before the officials of CRPF and Chhattisgarh Police at Sukma.

2.Sodi Mukka, a PLGA member, who had been an active Maoist since 2012, was eventually convinced to surrender after prolonged counselling by the CRPF and CG Police, who have been motivating him to give up arms.

3.Such surrenders not only reduce the strength of Maoist cadres but also serve as an example for other Maoists to follow. Numerous Maoists have already shun the path of violence and have been rehabilitated by the concerted efforts of Security Forces and state administration
