

1 Lakh rewardee Maoist surrender in Sukma

11 Feb 2023

The consistent efforts of CRPF and State Police in the LWE affected regions of the country have led to significant reduction in the Maoist violence. The efforts of the Security Forces in persuading the Maoists to give up the ideology of violence and surrender has also paid dividends as a large number of Maoists have been laying down their arms and returning to mainstream.

2. One such endeavor in Chattisgarh concluded successfully today as a Maoist surrendered in Sukma, Chhattisgarh. Dudhi Budhra, CNM President Tumulpad RPC surrendered before the officials of CRPF and Chhattisgarh Police. Budhra who had a reward of Rs 1 lakh on his head, had joined the Maoists in 2018 and was involved in several Maoist activities in Chintagupha and Chintalnar.
