India wins its first ever Gold in World Wushu Championship :
CRPF's Pooja Kadian makes India proud

CRPF's Ace Wushu champion Ms. Pooja Kadian has made it again. She has bagged Gold in 75 Kgs category of the 14th World Wushu Championship-2017 in Russia.

Ms. Kadian defeated Russia yesterday i.e, 3rd October, 2017 and won this prestigious gold medal. Even before, she has shown her field competence in Wushu by bagging a number of medals in both National and International events. While she had won gold in the 12th South Asian Games-2016 and in the 9th Asian Championship-2016, she had also bagged Silver Medals in the World Games-2013, World Championship-2013 and World Championship-2015 respectively. Besides she has also made CRPF in particular and the county in general proud in more than one occasion which includes Winning Gold in the National Games 2014 & 2017.
