

Honoring a Legacy: CRPF Bids Farewell to DG Dr. Sujoy Lal Thaosen

Gurugram, November 30, 2023

The Central Reserve Police Force bid an emotional farewell to Dr. Sujoy Lal Thaosen, DG CRPF, today, in an impressive ceremony filled with joy and gratitude. A grand farewell Parade at CRPF Academy, Kadarapur, Gurugram, celebrated the exceptional services of the Director General to the force. Reflecting on the valour, patriotism and determination of our brave personnel, Dr. Thaosen, DG CRPF, received the salute with pride. Later, a warm send-off at the Directorate General marked the close of a memorable day.

In his address, Shri. Sujoy Lal Thaosen DG CRPF praised the remarkable role of the Central Reserve Police Force in safeguarding our nation's internal security. On this occasion, Dr. Thaosen emphasized the need for continuous improvement in training and use of technology to meet the evolving security challenges of the nation. Expressing deep gratitude, he acknowledged the steadfast support and cooperation of the officers and personnel during his tenure as DG CRPF.

Dr. Sujoy Lal Thaosen, with a Master of Arts degree in Political Science from Jawahar Lal Nehru University, New Delhi, and a Ph.D. from Ujjain University, MP, joined the India Police Services in 1988 & was allotted to Madhya Pradesh cadre. In a distinguished career spanning over 35-years, he served in various capacities, and took up a wide spectrum of responsibilities/challenges. An avid sports lover, Dr. Thaosen's interests extend from athletics, tennis, badminton to golf.

While bidding adieu, Dr. Thaosen's exceptional leadership was acknowledged as an invaluable privilege for the entire force. Under his guidance, the force achieved unprecedented success in internal security, counter-terrorism and controlling Left wing extremism. During his tenure he ensured intensive use of technology for the benefit of the force and to enhance its operational efficiency by developing a mobile app for veterans, e-leave and scholarship portals as well as e-billing systems.

During his stewardship the CRPF led a lot of emphasis on civic action programmes which included health camps in remote areas to generate goodwill of the people towards the force and the county.

When the long journey of Dr. Thaosen enters into a different leg, the entire CRPF family wishes him a healthy, peaceful, and contented post-retirement life.

The day also marked the handing over of the baton of CRPF to Shri Anish Dayal Singh, IPS who is also holding the charge of Indo-Tibetan Border Police Force. Shri Singh is an IPS Officer of 1988 batch and has a wide experience in tackling national security challenges.
