

'Bravery flows like blood in our veins' says DG CRPF as he salutes Pulwama Martyrs

We have inherited bravery which flows like blood in our veins" said Dr. A.P. Maheshwari paying homage to the Pulwama Martyrs in a solemn and profound ceremony held in honour of the 40 CRPF Bravehearts who made supreme sacrifice in a dastardly suicide bomb attack on 14 February 2019. As DG and all ranks of CRPF joined the homage ceremony being held at the Lethpora memorial through virtual means, the DG saluted the courage and sacrifice of the bravehearts. The DG said that while every gallant deed and sacrifice is the pride of the force, the force has a glorious history of scripting sagas of exemplary bravery. The DG assured that due to selfless sacrifice and steadfast commitment to duty of brave men and women, that the force and nation stands strong as ever.

Marking the 2nd Anniversary of the heinous Pulwama attack, DG CRPF and all ranks of CRPF paid homage to the Pulwama Martyrs, the first copy of 'Shahadat ka Shaurya'-the first of its kind video book dedicated to Pulwama Martyrs, was presented to DG CRPF by Shri Vivek Bhatt. Dedicated to the valiant Pulwama Martyrs, the book in addition to the readable content also has a QR code on every page. The book has a content of 80 episodes and 300 minutes. A copy of the book will also be sent to the families of each Martyr.

The Central Reserve Police force- country's premier force in matters pertaining to internal security has a history of gallantry and devotion to duty which has increased the strength of the Force from 1 battalion in 1939 to 246 Battalions and counting at present. The force salutes its 2224 Bravehearts who laid down their lives at the altar of duty and takes pride in their indomitable courage and valour. The force is forever committed to stand shoulder to shoulder with the families of its Martyr.
