

DG CRPF visits Jammu, reviews operational preparedness

Shri Kuldiep Singh, DG CRPF is on his visit to Jammu to review the operational preparedness of the Force. Yesterday, he visited the JK Zone CRPF and Group Centre Jammu, located in Bantala. The DG inspected the campus and conducted a meeting with the officers on operational and administrative matters. He also paid a visit to CRPF's Composite Hospital located inside the campus and interacted with the patients and hospital staff.

Today the DG visited 76 Battalion and Transit Camp in Jammu. A Sainik Sammelan was conducted by the DG to interact with the personnel wherein he patiently listened to the issues projected by the Jawans and assured expedient resolution. He commended the Bravehearts of the force for their devotion and courage in serving the nation and encouraged the Jawans to give suggestions for betterment of the force. The DG also had informal interaction with the Jawans over tea.
