In the honour of the Braves: CRPF felicitates its decorated Bravehearts

In conformity with the cherished traditions of honouring epitomes of bravery and paying tributes to its gallant Martyrs, on 01/09/2021 the Central Reserve Police Force felicitated its Bravehearts who were awarded Gallantry Medal on Independence Day for exhibiting raw courage, exemplary fortitude, unparalleled devotion to the motherland, and nerves of steel in the gravest life threatening situations. Shri Kuldiep Singh, DG CRPF honoured the medal recipients by presenting mementos. Family members of Posthumously awarded Bravehearts were also felicitated in the ceremony.

CRPF bagged as many as 154 Gallantry awards, highest ever and highest among all CAPFs, on 75th Independence Day. It included 3 prestigious Shaurya Chakras, 1 PPMG (Posthumous) and 150 PMSG, taking the medal tally of the force to 2267. The phenomenal display of exemplary courage coupled with indomitable spirit and selfless devotion to the nation brought laurels in the form of prestigious Shaurya Chakras for Shri Chitesh Kumar, DC, SI/GD Manjinder Singh, and CT/GD Sunil Choudhary. Their conspicuous bravery in an operation in Distt. Sukma, Chattisgarh on 26/03/2019 neutralised 4 dreaded Maoists of PLGA cadre carrying 8 Lakh reward on their heads.

The nation bestowed Shaheed HC/GD Kale Sunil Dattatraya with PPMG (Posthumous) for his unparalleled courage and complete devotion to the integrity and honour of the nation. In 2020, in Pulwama Distt. despite perceiving grave peril to his life and being grievously injured in a operation, he rushed towards the terrorist and neutralised him on the spot. He saved the lives of fellow personnel and made supreme sacrifice at the altar of duty.

8 Lakh rewardee Maoist surrendered in Sukma, Chhattisgarh

Sodi Muya, Area Committee Secretary of Kerlapal Surrendered at SP Office Sukma before Shri Yogyan Singh, DIG (Ops) Sukma, Shri Sunil Sharma, SP, Sukma and other Officers.

Jn addition to persistent operations to eradicate Maoists from the LWE affected regions of the country, CRPF and State Police also concentrate their efforts at disabling the violent ideology by depriving the Maoists of their manpower. To this end, the security forces have exhorted the Maoists to leave the path of violence and return to a normal peaceful life. It is owing to such efforts, that Sodi Muya, Kerlapal Area Committee Secretary surrendered at SP Office Sukma before Shri Yogyan Singh, DIG (Operations), CRPF, Sukma, Chhattisgarh Shri Sunil Sharma, SP, Sukma and other CRPF and State Police officials. Active for the last 15 years, the surrendered Maoist against whom 20 cases of violent crimes are registered, had a reward of 8 Lakh on his head. He was involved in several attacks on security Forces including 01/12/2014 Chintagufa attack in which 14 Police personnel attained Martyrdom and Bheji attack on 11/03/2017 in which 12 jawans made supreme sacrifice. Such surrenders not only deplete the strength of Maoists but also expose the hollowness of their ideology that perpetrates meaningless violence and feeds on the exploitation of innocent civilians.

CRPF Saves A Boy's Life in Sukma

CRPF, "The Peace Keepers of the Nation" are deployed in the highly Naxal affected areas of District Sukma in south Bastar region of Chhattisgarh State. CRPF troopers help the public in the interior areas in addition to their main task of Anti Naxal Operations. Far flung areas in South Bastar suffer from the lack of medical and educational facilities. Here, CRPF is not only carrying out the internal security duties but also doing noble and humanitarian work for the benefit of the local population.

The hospitals of CRPF Battalions are the only places where medical help is immediately available. CRPF units organize free medical camps frequently to help the residents of this area. In addition to these hospitals, Six Field Hospitals (FH) also provide health services to CRPF men and the general public. Bastar region is prone to Malaria, Dengue, Snake Bites, Malnutrition etc. The medical team of doctors of CRPF extend unconditional medical support to the needy people/tribals of South Bastar.

On Independence Day this year, it was raining heavily when a tribal family with their 08 year old son reported at Field Hospital Kistaram, in the interior and highly Naxal affected area of District

Sukma. The boy had an old injury (Infections & clots) below right leg knee with debris. The boy was not able to move his leg and was crying due to acute pain. The injury in the right leg could not be treated due to the non-availability of medical services in that area.

Dr. Arun, the Medical Officer available in the Field Hospital Kistaram examined the patient and found that he had lost blood. The wound needed immediate surgery. He made the patient hemodynamically stable and operated upon him. The operation took almost two and half hours.

The parents were in tears to see the boy after the surgery. The boy started recovering quickly. Regular dressing and treatment with a personal touch healed the wound earlier than expected. The boy is able to walk normally and perform his daily chores.

On the day of RakshaBandhan, local women came in large numbers to tie Rakhi on the wrists of Jawans and specially the Medical Officer who had performed this surgery.

CRPF-A KAMDHENU

What is Kamdhenu? Kamdhenu is known as a miraculous cow of plenty who provides her owner with whatever he desires to understand CRPF as a Kamdhenu one has to know about her roles and performance over the years.

Background- In the early 19th century the British felt the need to have standing camps for its Army in Central and Western India. In the year 1818, three cantonments were setup Military Headquarters Of War (Mhow) near Indore, second at Nasirabad near Ajmer, and in between them North India Military and Cavalry Headquarters (Nimach) which was located in forest land ceded from Rajasahib of Mandsaur.

In 1930's the British were frequently called upon to deal with Pindari menace and Prajamandal activities which state police could not handle and thus having its own police was considered necessary.

On 27 July 1939 sanction for Crown Representative Police was accorded under the Act of 1939 and it was granted immunity from state laws for acts and omissions while on duty.

Considering the strategic importance of its accessibility to Princely States and commercial centre of opium, the headquarters of CRP was kept at Nimach and assets of cantonment Board were handed over to CRP because Army had moved out due to the World War II.

Raising- First unit of CRP had a sanctioned strength of 7 officers 30 SOs and 970 Other Ranks comprising of 4 coys with 2 TS squads and a HQ. Initially 375 Hindus, 375 Muslims, and 250 Sikhs all ex-army persons of different states were recruited making it an all India force with a secular outlook and was equipped to function at detachment away from HQ. Its detachments proved their mettle even against Hurs and dacoits spread over many Princely States, Sindh and NWPF.

Its enhanced reputation led to greater demand. A case was made for sanction of the second unit of CRP but only two more coys were sanctioned. Thus the unit is now comprised of 6 coys plus a HQ.

Post Independence- Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, the then Home Minister, while speaking on retention of CRP in his prophetic speech said, "This little force, which we had ,came in very handy.....on borders .....against dacoits.....in industrial centres .....we have taken care to organise.....so that progress may be as effective and as rapid as possible."

Thus Crown Representative Police became Central Reserve Police Force as one of the armed forces of the Union.

With a multi-role mandate for the force, some more units were added. Some of the units deployed on borders worked under control of the Army and were equipped with MMGs and 3 inch mortars, while other units were deployed in various states to maintain the law and order, and to fight against insurgents.

In the 1965 war against Pakistan, CRPF units deployed on Rajasthan, Punjab, and J&K borders did commendably well.

Demand for CRPF kept increasing as such, in the late 1960s, 35 India Reserve Battalions of various states were merged with CRPF. To keep its all India and secular outlook men from these units were mixed upto section level.

At that time unity, discipline and camaraderie in a unit was comparable to any unit of the Army.

A group of Ministers laid down a policy of "One force, One role". Under this policy responsibility for guarding borders was given to BSF, ITBP & SSB and industrial security was given to CISF. Till such time Acts for these forces were passed by the Parliament some of these forces were raised and governed under CRPF Act & Rules.

Role of Internal Security was assigned to the CRPF. Internal Security is a vast role covering law & order, insurgency, terrorism, communal violence, strikes, agitations, elections etc.

Kamdhenu is satisfied to give away some of her roles to other sister organisations as its own resources were stretched too much. Present day Kamdhenu looks some what like this;

KAMDHENU

- RAF / CoBRA
- VIP / NDRF
- SPG / SDG
- GCs / HQ
- TRG.Instts

- Attachments
- Deficiencies

Executive units

- Reduce numbers
- On completion of tenure one should go back to original unit

Active
Content

Kamdhenu is happy that some of the units have specialised in specific fields like VIP security, Control of communal riots, Anti-insurgent ops, Disaster Management etc. These units select manpower, mostly of younger age groups, from the executive units for 4 to 5 years.

Kamdhenu notes that some of the individuals going to these units develop links and one day Kamdhenu sat mulling over her performance so far. She felt happy over contributions of her progeny in national integration. Her mind scanned through a saga of glorious performances made by her progeny and are worth finding place in the annals of the history. Only a few of these are mentioned here-in.

1 On 21st October 1959, 10 jawans while patrolling in the high altitude area of Ladakh, were encircled by a large number of heavily armed Chinese soldiers. They fought valiantly till the last man and the last bullet and gave their supreme sacrifice for the nation instead of surrendering to the Chinese.

2 On 9th April 1965 two of her coys deployed on the border were attacked by a Brigade of Pakistan Army supported by tanks and artillery. These two coys, despite suffering losses, inflicted heavy casualties on the Pakistan army and forced them to withdraw.

3 In 1960's a platoon of 7 Bn, CRPF was charged for an act or omission in Nagaland. In a show of solidarity, a CRPF person on knowing about a jawan of 7 Bn. passing through his location would go to the station to give him food for the journey and also some money for fighting the case. Such instances were numerous throughout the country- one of the cases of esprit de corps exemplified. This case was pleaded by Sh. SS Ray on behalf of the jawans in the Guwahati High Court and the men were acquitted.

4 In West Bengal when Naxalites were playing havoc with the civilians and the shopkeepers were refusing to sell provisions to the CRPF lest they were killed, In spite of dispersed deployments CRPF personnel showed grit against ambushes and IEDs deployed by the Naxals and ultimately eliminated them.

- 5 In J&K elections a CRPF jawan showed extreme restraint against abuses and heavy stone pelting by the crowd, suffered injuries but he doesn't react even though he had a loaded INSAS rifle and ensured the safety of polling officers.
- 6 Policing despite being a state subject States are not obliged to provide accommodation to CAPF. On two occasions when the Central government thought it prudent to position CRPF at the imminent place of deployment, State governments refused to accommodate. Once it was a positioned in Kerala when Presidents rule was to be imposed and another was UP when Babri Masjid was under dispute. On both of these occasions CRPF had to pitch tents on Railway/Army land.

Kamdhenu felt proud that over 2200 of her brave hearts have earned gallantry awards for their acts of bravery at the risk of life and 2236 of her progeny laid down their lives in service to the nation.

She also thought of some concerns which needs consideration & redressal.

1. Rest & Training- The fact that every additional unit sanctioned by the Government for rest and training is sucked in field duties that points out need to enhance the effectiveness of existing units.
2. Unity- With large number of her progeny being transferred to new raising, RAF, other institutions etc most of her offspring have become individualists. This trend unless reversed will considerably harm esprit de corps, discipline, and unity in a unit. Units will become a group of individuals.

To ensure a continued sense of belonging to the units personnel going out on transfer to RAF/CoBRA etc and other institutions, on completion of their tenure must come back to the original units. As far as possible jawans and officers should continue in the same unit even on promotion.

Implementation of this idea may not be as difficult as it may seem to be and has high motivational value.

Just for an example if 15 RAF Bns select manpower from 200 executive units, one RAF unit should take personnel from 13 executive units. Similar arrangements can be made for CoBRA and other specialised units and institutions. ERE system prevalent in the Army can be taken as a guide.

3. Promotions- In the age of information technology awareness about service conditions in various forces, is very high. While parity may not be always possible, but considerable differences in promotions in various organisations does affect motivation level. Here Kamdhenu finds her children in a disadvantageous position.
4. Medal Allowance- After independence when awards for gallant action in War as well as in Peace times were instituted financial allowances were fixed for each award.

At that time allowance for PPMG was higher than the allowance for Vir Chakra and that of PMG was equal to the allowance for Shaurya Chakra. Allowances for these Medals have been reduced vis-a-vis other gallantry medals. A historical comparative chart is given here:-

Award	Allowance (in Rs)
	1982	2021
PPMG	90	6000
Vir Chakra	75	7000
Shaurya Chakra	60	6000
PMG	60	2000

Another linked issue is about the denial of exemption to awardees of PPMG and PMG -a clear discrimination as exemption is given to award winners of the Armed Forces.

Kamdhenu fails to understand as to why acts of bravery shown by her progeny at the risk of their lives have become second rate over a period of time.

5 Some other issues like shortage of family accommodation, number of people seeking discharge early retirement, lack of policy on last rites of retired personnel are some of the talking points.

Conclusion- Having considered performance in relation to the role, Kamdhenu is proud of her progeny for their creditable performance in maintaining internal security to a level at which economic activity can go unhindered, which in turn helps in the progress of the nation. Kamdhenu also hopes that her children will improve the effectiveness of the units and wishes them a bright future.

"WOMEN EMPOWERMENT AND CRPF"

1. Introduction :-

Men and Women are two equal and lovable creations. No one is inferior or superior. Work and family are the two major domains for both. During the National Struggle for Independence, Mahatma Gandhi gave a call for the emancipation of Women. He wrote - "I am uncompromising in the matter of Women's rights. The difference in sex and physical form denotes no difference in status. Woman is the complement of man and not inferior." Although men and women play equally significant roles, women are still facing severe criticism comparatively. Therefore, it is the moral duty of the members of the society to appreciate sincerely and address honestly the achievements and accomplishments of women. Women play a significant role in the fields and make fruitful contributions to the economic development of the Nation. Women have encountered several challenges and barriers and have successfully overcome all to reach whatever they are today.

2. Enactments to be kept in mind :-

When we talk about Gender inequality and the empowerment of Women, we have to keep in mind the following enactments:-

- (i) The National Commission for Women Act-1990.
- (ii) The Protection of Human Rights Act - 1993.
- (iii) Dowry Prohibition Act - 1961.
- (iv) The Equal Remuneration Act - 1986
- (v) The Hindu Marriage Act - 1956.
- (vi) The Hindu Succession Act - 1956
- (vii) The Muslim Women (Protection of Rights on Divorce) Act-1986
- (viii) The Commission of Sati (Protection) Act - 1987.
- (ix) Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act- 2005
- (x) The Constitution of India

3. Types of Gender Inequalities :-

(i) Natality Inequality

- (a) Preference for boys over girls.

without fear or favour. Women are even working at the level of IsGP and DisGP also in CRPF. There are Mahila Commandants, commanding Mahila Battalions. Mahila personnel in the rank of Gazetted Officers & Subordinate Officers working in Mahila Battalions other Establishments of CRPF have been provided with adequate knowledge about Women Empowerment and Gender Sensitization to enable them to handle any challenging situation quite effectively and efficiently. The active role played by the Mahila Officers, Subordinate Officers and Other Ranks in various theatres of operation including performing delicate duties in Foreign Countries as part of the UN Peace Keeping Mission is highly laudable. Competent women in the Ministerial Cadre, Medical and Paramedical staff have done yeoman service in CRPF due to the enormous amount of encouragement given to them as part of Women Empowerment. I have closely watched the Basic Training of Mahila Coys of 88 (M) Bn CRPF of Group Centre, Pallipuram (Kerala), of Mahila Sub-Inspectors at CTC, CRPF, Avadi (TN) (Now located in Coimbatore) and of Mahila DAGOs at Internal Security Academy, Mt. Abu (Rajasthan). I have seen their field work closely at many places including Sri Lanka, Srinagar (J&K), Imphal (Manipur), Dimapur (Nagaland) and RAF Bns in Meerut, Aligarh, Allahabad, Jamshedpur, Hyderabad, New Delhi, Ahmedabad, Navi Mumbai, Bhopal and Coimbatore. Some Mahila Commandants have commanded Male Bns also in field areas. The RAF Contingent in Liberia as part of the UN Peace Keeping Force was also commanded by a Mahila Commandant. In Sri Lanka one Coy of 88 (Mahila) Bn was deployed as part of IPKF and attached to 63 Bn CRPF which I was commanding at that time (1989). In 2020, the second Mahila Bn of the Force i.e. 135(M) Bn will be celebrating its Silver Jubilee. There are many gallant Mahila personnel including Late CT(M) Kamlesh Kumari who was awarded 'Ashok Chakra' posthumously for sacrificing her life to save the Parliament of India from a terrorist attack on 13th December, 2001. The list of Arjuna Awardees Mahila personnel of CRPF is also quite long. Ms. Kunjarani Devi, Commandant CRPF and Arjuna Awardee was felicitated during the "7th National Conference of Women in Police" held at CRPF Academy, Kadarapur, Gurugram on 5th January, 2016 which was inaugurated by the then Home Minister of India Shri. Rajnath Singh. Many Mahila Officers of CRPF had participated in the discussions on various vital subjects during the above Conference.

7. Conclusion :-

Women are gifted with kind heartedness, motherhood, caring nature and concern for others. Woman is found to be more sincere in the performance of her duties. All the superior qualities of women have to be used for the economic development and well-being of the society apart from household responsibilities. We must recognize and accept the fact that men and women are equal partners in life and they are individuals who have their own identity.

Public Relations in CAPFs

Of late, Public Relations (PR) has assumed such importance that PR experts are swarming around the world in all corporate bodies and are playing a pivotal role in enhancing the image of their organisations with the sole objective of adding fillip to their marketing strategy. Not only are they playing a vital role as part of the core group, but are also providing expert guidance to the top management in endearing the general public so as to applaud and persuade them to use their products and services.

A generally accepted definition of Public Relations is that it is a “deliberate, planned and sustained effort” to enhance the image of an organization that would help promote the sales of products or services of an organisation.

According to Blogger, the purpose of public relations is “to influence the public's respect, confidence, and approval for the agency's actions and efforts”.

Why a PR Set Up in Police

A PRO is an essential requirement in any police organization as it acts as a conduit between media and the police force. In layman's language, a policeman would define public relations as an effort to maintain cordial relations with the general public so as to draw their cooperation in the job of policing. Undoubtedly, public cooperation is an essential ingredient of good policing. But for a professional PR man, it is much more than just winning over the public. He has to bring in his professional acumen and tools to maintain a good image of the police force which would instinctively draw the public to extend full cooperation to the police.

By disseminating correct and timely information to the media, the PR man scotches rumours and prevents any escalation of trouble in an area. If rumours float around leading to ugly situations, the PR man intervenes to counter such rumours and restore peace and tranquility.

Any distorted news that may appear in print or electronic media gets the PR man activated to get it rectified. Since it is a full time job, his eyes and ears are highly sensitive to any news – good or bad - relating to policing and apprise his senior officials of the same.

PR in Police

Though some police organisations in the States have full time Public Relations Officers, there are several others who do not seem to give due importance to it. In Delhi, an officer of the rank of Additional Commissioner of Police is designated as PRO. He has the advantage of contacting any of the Deputy Commissioners of Police at Delhi any time of the day and collect information relating to any incident or crime. He further disseminates the information to the media by culling out the relevant portions that could be shared with the media while holding back such information that may not be in the interest of maintenance of crime control or maintenance of law and order.

CRPF - A Multi-Dimensional Force

BRIEF HISTORY

Raised as Crown Representatives' Police during July 1939, to contain the nationalist movements (called Prajamandal or Prajaparishad agitations) in autocratic princely states of India, during the second & third decades of the last century, which gathered momentum after the endorsement of such movements by Congress during its Lahore session (1929) & its Lucknow session (1936), and, the faulty application of federalism for the princely states in British India brought under Govt of India Act 1935 (which introduced representation to the upper house of central legislative called council of states, by nomination and not byelection of representatives of the princely states and acceptance of office by Congress in the provinces of British India, absent in princely states) CRPF started with one unit, intended to be reserve, has traversed a checkered past. Post-independence the Force was retained and renamed as Central Reserve Police (set to undergo a second rechristening after Govt renames all CAPFs as Indian Central Armed Police Service - IAPS), the force remained relentlessly engaged fighting various forms of Internal Security, line cross border raids & skirmishes in Western India and J&K in the late forties, to present day high intensity anti-terror Ops in the UT of J&K, from rudimentary Naxalism of Naxalbadi (WB) to high intensity LWE Ops in various parts of the country, insurgency of north-east, anti-riot Ops in selected pockets of the country, IPKF assignment in SriLanka and various UN missions. Thus, with amplification in the charter of duties & quantum of deployment, the Force has grown to the present size of over 246 units, with the honour of being the largest para-military force in the world, with modern weapons, equipment & accessories including UAVs and high-speed communication network connecting all static establishments.

CRPF Contingent on the Rajpath

RAISING & GRAFTING

On British residents in the princely states, feeling the necessity of a common (central) force to deal with the rising 'nationalist' uprisings, a force of one Battalion named, Crown Representatives' Reserve Police, was raised employing the Army's retrenched soldiers of Second World War, at North India Mounted Artillery & Cavalry Headquarters (Nimach), MP, during the end of July 1939. As the area of deployment shifted from quelling nationalist uprisings to checking banditry prevalent in central - western India during forties, followed by integration of princely states into independent India and ensuing border raids & skirmishes, the demand on the force started rising and continued unabated. Thus, for the first twenty years (till about 1960), the units were added by recruitment up to a dozen. From 1960 to about mid-seventies, in addition to recruitment, the force was grafted with a no. of the State Armed Police units enbloc, till the number of units rose to about 60. For the next ten years i.e. mid-eighties, the force saw a quantum expansion (several units at a time), marginally attenuating the regimentation & attitudinal assimilation - quickly restored, but enhancing the popularity & demand of the force among the citizens & state Govts. The period, post attack on the PM on 31 Oct 1984, can be called as the modern period of Internal Security of the country, with challenging security concerns of the VIPs, and, post parliament attack of 13 Dec 2001, a period of challenging institutional security for the country, truly reflected in the rapid expansion of the Force in specialized branches, in distinct departure from the traditional concept of stock law & order with orthodox mindset on the part of police officers of old genre & law enforcement agencies.

It also deserves a special mention that post 1960, the Force saw codification of working rules for various administrative & operational functions of the Force mainly under the leadership of Sh NS Saxena IPS and later codification of major operations & traditions under the leadership of Sh TN Mishra IPS- two officers who stand out for their ingenious efforts to streamline the manuals of the Force, bringing the state of documentation in the Force to its present form. There are grey areas still awaiting codification, viz, the Operational & Administrative history of the Force as it evolved during last eight decades, including the history of the individual units - a great motivational factor for the future men & officers to take pride on, and give their best in trying times. But this aspect is heavily preconditioned by the continuity of the top leadership of the Force with officers who have risen in the Force.

The mission of the Force is to enable the government to maintain the Rule of Law, Public Order and Internal Security effectively and efficiently, to preserve National Integrity & to Promote Social Harmony and Development by upholding supremacy of the Constitution. By performing these tasks with utmost regard for human dignity and freedom of the citizens of India, the force shall endeavour to achieve excellence in management of internal security and national calamities by placing Service and Loyalty above self.

MULTI-DISCIPLINE EVOLUTION

The phase after 1984 saw a paradigm shift in the canvas of internal security in the country from a traditional law & order to a host of different manifestations of internal security - truly chronicled in the expansion of the Force, i.e. repeated incidence of riots in multi-ethnic towns of the country, giving rise to the Mahila Units (1987) & Rapid Action Force (1992); intense militancy in Punjab & J&K, honing up the professional competence of the officers & men of the Force; spread of new version of Left Wing Extremism with improved indoctrination, weaponry & tactics, in north-eastern Andhra, Chhattisgarh & a few districts of Odisha, giving rise to Commando Battalions for Resolute Action - CoBRA (2008)-trained to function in dense forests as the LWE cadres did; attack on PM (of 1984) & Parliament (Dec 2001), gave rise to Special Duty Group & Parliament Duty Groups - with high fitness & accurate handling of modern covert weapons; while a large part of the Force carried on fighting the resurgent insurgency in North-Eastern states of upper Assam, Nagaland, hilly Districts of Manipur & Tripura (Mizo insurgency since ended with Mizo accord during mid-eighties), now a new wing of Force specially earmarked, trained & deployed for VIP security. Thankfully the specialized & branched expansion of the Force was accompanied by the raising of commensurate specific training establishment and acquisition of job specific equipment, accessories & transport.

CRPF Dare Devil Women on Display of Their Professional Prowess on the Rajpath

The expansion being demand based, didn't go in vain, the force continued with sustained deployment of above ninety percent of the strength, telling upon the periodic rotational refresher & re-fitment training of the Force (reflected in sporadic; high operational casualties, fratricides & suicides). Continuously high degree of deployment, though, gave the men & officers of the force a high degree of operational confidence, albeit at an avoidable high cost of men & material. To overcome such reverses, eight percent of men in twelve batches of one month refresher training, (complying with the National Training Policy which lays down that 10% of the total service duration of every Govt servant should be devoted to training, and, sixteen percent of men (in six batches of) two months annual leave, total twenty-four percent of numerical strength (not formations) should be unavailable for duties at all times of a calendar year - to be accepted as maintenance cost of a well-trained & efficient force with high moral. It needs no emphasis that the moment the prohibited line of seventy-six percent deployment is crossed, a rise in attrition, incidents of fratricides & suicides should always be feared.

CRPF Rapid Action Force Contingent Marching Past the Saluting Base

MULTI-DIMENSIONAL ROLE

The diversity of the roles being shouldered by the Force since inception, can be gauged by the fact that before the raising of the BSF, ITBP, SSB & CISF, the sensitive parts of border guarding & airport security were being carried out by the CRPF, besides assisting the State Police Forces, in the maintenance of routine Law & Order, in strength for mega - events of state Assembly & Parliamentary elections as Nodal Force, in the conduct of Purn-Kumbh at Varanasi & Ardh-Kumbh at Hardwar, during Amarnath Yatra not only in the escorting the pilgrims' convoys from Jammu to Pahalgam & back but also to sanitize & keep the route open by the physical occupation of vantage points enroute from Jammu to the shrine. The Force is called in the event of natural calamities like floods & earthquakes without prior notice as the first responder force (part of the workload now shared by eight units of NDRF). It has always measured up to the expectations of the affected masses & the Govt alike.

The force has a history of dealing with the insurgency of North Eastern states beginning from mid-fifties in Nagaland & Mizoram (Mizo insurgency is over thanks to the devolution of power through the Mizo accord of mid -eighties), later adding to the list the states of West Bengal, Andhra & a few districts of north Kerala (for Naxalism) and more recent additions of Jharkhand, Odisha & Maharashtra infested with Left Wing Extremism. The Force has rendered the threat ineffective in these states by sheer weight of its operational ruggedness & resilience developed over decades of constant exposure, albeit at the cost of own precious lives (that being the cost imposed by unfavourable terrain coupled with absence of real-time intelligence). The recent acquisition of UAVs to the inventory of the Force, would make a difference in gathering mechanical intelligence and channelizing the flow of extremists into the tracts desired by the troops (called intelligent Ops).

The threat of cross border terrorism of J&K, has always involved the deployment of the Force to the extent of one third of the Force which includes not only fighting the terrorists in their strong-holds shoulder to shoulder with defence forces but also protecting the politicians, Govt establishments, Govt officials & general public from their persecution, securing market places, streets & highways. The Force (with whatever the costs) has always acquitted itself with credit in this theatre of Operation that too with laurels & decorations.

To sum up, the Force faced the brunt of early onslaught of Chinese aggression on 21 Oct 1959 at Hot Spring Ladakh sacrificing ten brave hearts - the day being observed as Police Commemoration Day throughout the country, two Coys of the Force repulsed the Brigade level attack of Pakistani Army in the early hours of 09 Apr 1965 in the Rann of Kuch capturing 4 & killing 34 enemy soldiers including two officers- the day being observed as the 'Valour Day' by the Force, assisted Indian Army in 1971 war earning 22 gallantry medals, escorted Indian Railways trains during pan-India Railway strike of 1974, thwarted terrorist attack on the Parliament by five terrorists on 13 Dec 2001 eliminating all five of them, thwarted terrorist attack on Ram Janmbhumi Shrine at Ayodhya on 05 July 2005 eliminating all five terrorists, participated in IPKF deployment in Sri Lanka, UN mission in Kosovo, Liberia & Haiti.

In recognition of the yeoman service in the field of maintaining Internal Security of the country, the Force has the honour of earning Presidential Colour as early as 19 March 1950 along with 1980 gallantry medals, 2969 distinguished & meritorious service medals, so far.

FUTURE EXPECTATIONS

Restoring the Service Pension: The above narration would reveal the hazards of the service in the CRPF. The pension entitled to the Force personnel has been discontinued w.e.f. 2004. It's a great setback to the personnel & their families post retirement, especially in the event of operational casualties. As the charter of duties of the CRPF is as tough & risk prone as that of defence forces, the personnel of the Force expect the service pension to be restored as applicable prior to 2004.

Legal Framework: Traditional law & order, which falls within the responsibility of the state (police forces) has yielded considerable amount of space to riots, militancy, terrorism, mega events of parliamentary & state assembly elections, festival of Kumbh, mass transits by rail road & air, checking smuggling of cattle, people, drugs & weapons at international borders, falling within the domain of CAPFs, being often carried out, without a police representative. The situation, therefore, is ripe to calls for creation of a two-tire policing system in our vast country - district police to concentrate on traditional form of policing comprising of beat policing, registration & investigation of crime, in the districts, leaving the other hazardous & manpower intensive policing jobs, as enumerated above, to the CAPFs duly equipped with minimum required legal backup, introducing Federal Policing like in western countries, to take cognizance of the crime, make arrests and handover the cases with preliminary evidence to the nearest police station of jurisdiction for further investigation & prosecution.

Maintaining the Force Young: The fresh recruits, after maturing for five years in the regular Force should be posted to CoBRA or RAF units for five years followed by next twenty years in the regular Force again. That would see the personnel in the rank of a Sr UO or SO in the age group of 48 to 53 years. That's the time they could be considered for side-stepping to State Armed Police Forces of their home state in training or general administrative branches. This arrangement would not only render respite to CAPF personnel during last ten years of service in their home state but also make available a good no. of trained personnel to the State Armed Police Forces for various specialized jobs.

AROGYA CANCER BLOCK (Initiative by 102 RAF)

Every year thousands of different statistics are being recorded and we rarely pay heed to any such data unless some of our acquaintances become a number in it, with the pandemic around, we could actually decipher how devastating some stats were. But is it the end of the list? Well, no. There are some other health issues in India, stats of which is not only heart wrenching but also annihilating. Pandemic or no pandemic, stats relating to cancer, by and large, top these sorts of list. A few years back WHO (World Health Organization) quoted, "One in every 10 Indians will develop cancer and one in every 15 will die of the disease"

According to the study, India, with a population of 1.35 billion, witnessed as many as 1.16 million new cancer cases and 784,800 cancer deaths in 2018. Breast cancer, oral cancer, cervical cancer, lung cancer, stomach cancer and colorectal cancer are among the most common types of cancer in India, which together accounted for 49% of all new cancer cases.

Have you ever wondered why the mortality rate of cancer in India is so high? although, the pernicious nature of the disease makes it very obvious to answer yet if we read the situation exhaustively we will realize it isn't the sole reason leading to such large number of deaths. Because cancer unlike any normal disease, brings, a lot of weight with itself, the treatment undoubtedly is extraordinary, it's a war to be fought not only by patients but also by their respective families. Its treatment doesn't start the moment, the patient step inside the hospital rather it starts at the very moment when the patient decides to go for medication.

Well, it might come as a surprise to you, but in reality there is a large number of people who couldn't even gather the courage to fight this battle. And if somehow they gather it, they eventually fail to get the right treatment because of various reason. From arranging the sum required for the treatment to getting proper medical care there infinite small battle that have to be fought, to make the treatment accessible.

Speaking of treatment,

We very well know the mechanism and technology involved in the treatment of cancer is complex. Hence, such hospitals are only available in SELECTED urban areas. Even most of the developed cities in India are yet to have their own hospital for the same.

In India whenever, the best hospital for cancer is named, with absolute certainty Tata Memorial Hospital of Mumbai always come first.

Mumbai is a city of dreams. Every day thousands of Individuals come to Mumbai and struggle to bring their dreams into reality. Some of them eventually shine like a star, where a large number of dreams get shattered every second.

So, whenever Tata Memorial is mentioned there comes a fear as due to its being in Mumbai. There is a fear of getting lost in the crowd and a fear of getting crushed in this big, city of dreams.

For outsiders, or people belonging to the middle class CANCER+MUMBAI together is worse than even the concept of death. Hence no of cancer patient becomes hopeless without giving it a shot.

But whenever families of CRPF personnel even their extended family loses hope. The campus of 102 RAF brings light in their dark world. CRPF is the largest paramilitary force in INDIA with its presence in almost every part of the country.

102 RAF was raised in 1994. After basic amenities requirements were made available, for the soldiers to survive the idea of AROGYA cancer block was put forth and very soon its foundation was laid and by July 2013 it came in action.

the cancer block was established as a home for all those cancer patients who come from different cities to Mumbai for their treatment. Initially there were 8 rooms, but with time it was increased to 15 and at present there are 50 rooms with fully furnished kitchen and toilet facilities. At times when the rooms have been fully occupied, room of GOs and SOs mess are being used to accommodate such patients.

In addition to this CRPF signed MOU with Tata Memorial Hospitals for cashless treatment on 5th July 2013 to set all such patients and their family tension free, when it comes to financing.

Every morning an AC bus picks-up patients for hospital from the cancer block and drops them back by the evening. Even during pandemic peak hours when everything including campus main gate was shut, bus continued to take total patients to hospital, in fact bus was provided with some additional amenities as per the need of the hour. Keeping in mind the mental condition of patients and their respective family a TV room and 24*7 free unlimited

Wifi has been made available to them. In fact for book lovers' a library has been added to the cancer block, lately.

Keeping the post chemotherapy condition of patient in mind, a fully air-conditioned post chemotherapy care ward with oxygen and basic life support, by consulting senior faculty from Tata Memorial Hospital has been setup it was inaugurated by Sh. Kuldiep Singh, IPS, Director General on 21st August, 2021.

In almost all CRPF/RAF camps we every now and then witness the story of warriors, who sacrificed their life while protecting the nation. But when you will come to 102 RAF, you will see a different kind of warriors residing in the cancer block. Cancer block is not merely a place. Infact it is the hope in a lost world. It Is the hope of life to someone who can Feel their death at the doorstep at every moment. The cancer block is merely not just part of the campus it's a place where you will witness the strength of fighting the odds even when you are not sure of breathing the very next moment. Those walls in the rooms of cancer block has a story of more fighters embedded in it than we could ever imagine. The garden surrounding the cancer block is so beautiful that even some of the patients have mentioned that, - "at many instances it has helped them to keep positive vibes".

Till date there have been for approx 900 force personal and their dependents whom Arogya cancer block has given a home when they were away from their real homes.

Although we pray for everyone's good health and wish that never in their life-time will they need to come to this place. But if ever needed, Arogya cancer block will be ready to give them a new home.

Truth to be told, we all know that fate is not in anybody's hand but each and every individual who comes here or has ever came here, we believe, is true warrior. they chose to take it hand on hand rather than to simply become hopeless.

Also, not to forget the family of these warriors who stood with them as their backbone.

As Ralph Waldo Emerson once said,

What lies behind us and what lies ahead of us are tiny matters to what lies within us.

It means that what seem like big or difficult things in our lives are small compared to the determination and ability within us.

Hence at the end of the day courage is the ultimate thing that matters, be it bein our day to day life or a war against cancer.

THROUGH AROGYA CANCER BLOCK AND ALL RELATED FACILITIES WE TRY TO KEEP patients and their FAMILY MEMBERS COURAGE INTACT AND LET THEM FOCUS ONLY ON THE TREATMENT BY TAKING CARE OF OTHER EXTERNAL FACTORS AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE. & LET THEM BELIEVE THAT THEY ARE NOT ALONE & THIS TOO SHALL PASS.
